

Holbert Wins At Daytona

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. Feb. 5 (AP)—Bob Holbert, a foreign car distributor from Warrington, Pa., drove his Porche 61 at an average 96.80 mph for 35 laps over a 3.1 mile course today to win the featured Sports Car Club of America race.

Augie Pabst of Milwaukee, the pre-race favorite for the contest at the Daytona International Speedway, blew the engine of his Scarab in a morning work-out and could not start.

His teammate, Harry Heuer of Chicago, led for 17 laps in his Scarab but had to drop out.

Art Huttinger of Windermere, Fla., was second in a Lister Corvette. Chuck Casel of Fort Lauderdale placed third in a Porsche 61 and Bob Johnson of Columbus, Ohio, was fourth in the 14 car field with a Corvette.

Charles Kurtz of Clearfield, Pa., came in first at an average 87.40 mph in a Lola in the 25 lap race over the 3.1 mile course.

Next in order were Bill Story of Clearwater in a Lotus and Donald Wolf of Cleveland in an Elva MKV.

The 30 lap race over the 1.63 mile course was won by David Lang of Fort Wayne, Ind., in a Bandini Saab at 63.35 mph. Next were Howard Bernard of Broomal, Pa., in a DB and Tom van Hoozier of Knoxville, Tenn., in a Zink Petite.
